

Announcing our Summer Education Series...

“A JOURNEY TO FULLNESS”

Saints Constantine & Helen Greek Orthodox Church (Sacalis Hall)

60 Traverse Road, Newport News, VA

Every Wednesday evening: June 14 – July 26, 2017

Refreshments 7:00-7:15 pm followed by Lecture and Q&A 7:15-8:00pm

The series, presented by Fr. Barnabus Powell, will benefit:

- Those who are inquiring about the Orthodox Christian faith
- Those who want to explain Orthodoxy to their non-Orthodox spouses
- Orthodox Christians who want to better understand their faith

Session topics will be:

June 14: “Is this trip really necessary?”

(How does the Orthodox faith understand itself?)

June 21: “What is the Orthodox Church?”

(How has the Orthodox Church survived – despite great persecution?)

June 28: “When did Orthodoxy Begin?”

(The timing of the start of the Orthodox Church is significant and has even been described as the “perfect storm”.)

July 5: “Characteristics of Orthodox Christianity”

(What does “One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church” mean in the Nicene Creed?)

July 12: “Mindset Matters”

(What are the four basic attitudes of the Orthodox Church?)

July 19: “A Healing Purpose”

(What does the Orthodox Church teach about sin and salvation?)

July 26: “Truth and Tradition”

(Understanding the significance of truth and tradition in the Orthodox Church)

Attend one session or all seven. Come and learn about the richness of Orthodoxy!
