“A JOURNEY TO FULLNESS”

Saints Constantine & Helen Greek Orthodox Church (Hellenic Center)

60 Traverse Road, Newport News, VA

Every Wednesday evening: August 2 – September 30, 2017

Refreshments at 7:00 pm followed by Presentation/Q&A

August 2: “How do I understand the Bible?”

(We will learn about Universality, Antiquity and Consensus)

August 9: “When We Say God – Part 1”

(Who is God? What is The Holy Trinity?)

August 16: “When We Say God – Part 2”

(What role does our worship, specifically the Eucharist, play in the restoration of communion between God and Man.)

August 23: “God With Us”

(We will learn why the incarnation of Jesus Christ is so important to The Church.)

August 30: “Our Ultimate Purpose”

(Why are we here? Do our lives have purpose?)

September 6: “Salvation as Participation”

(The Eucharist has been described as “the medicine of immortality and the antidote against death”. What does this mean?)

September 13: “Orthodox Worship”

(The Words “Divine Liturgy” actually mean “the work of the people”. We will find out how our “work” of worship helps us to adore God and be in His presence.)

September 20: “A Beautiful Rhythm”

(We will learn how our Christian calendar helps us to be in communion with God.)

September 27: “Series Finale”

(We will discuss the next steps that we can take on our journeys and how the rhythm of the liturgical life of the Church can shape our lives.)

Attend one session or all nine. Come and learn about the richness of Orthodoxy!
